A Swiss Company to emigrate to America and settle in the wilderness had been organized, but who the progenitors of it were, we cannot state.

The pioneers were Hans Moylin, his sons, Martin and John, Hans Herr, John Rudolph Bundley, Martin Kendig, Jacob Miller and others, who came to Canastota in 1709 and selected a tract of 10,000 acres of land on the north side of Pequea Creek and, shortly after, procured a warrant for the same from William Penn. It is dated October 10, 1710.

The above men are recorded as Swissers. This land was later divided among the leaders in the group. The tract, patented to Jacob Miller, was located on the Pequea, about midway between Strasburg and Lampeter, containing 1008 acres for $326.59. The deed is dated June 30, 1711.

In the State Library at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, it is recorded that this group of people came over in the "Ship Mary Hope". On June 27, 1710 they were in London, having just crossed from Amsterdam. There were 94 passengers on board. They were seven weeks and four days crossing. Landing September, 1710. In the winter of 1709 and 1710, they fled out of the Emmenthal near Berne, went to Holland to collect means. That is why they were wrongfully called Pennsylvania Dutch. Rev. Tschantz was their first Mennonite minister.

Jacob Miller was born in Zurich, Switzerland about March 1, 1663. Died April 20, 1739. Age 76 years, 1 month, 3 weeks. Buried in a private cemetery on the land originally patented to him. Records show he had three sons. His son John was born December 9, 1713. Married Mary Brubaker. To this union, we find record of three sons and three daughters. Their son David born May 1, 1754, married Mary Souder. To this union, was born three sons and five daughters. To their daughter, Catherine, and Samuel Miller, Sr. was born Samuel Miller October 26, 1806.

In the will of David Miller, recorded in Lancaster County Records, R. Vol. 1, Page 51, the following language is used - "I give and bequeath to my grandson, Samuel Miller, eldest son of my daughter Catherine and Samuel Miller, Sr. who later intermarried with Jacob Eckman..."

Recorded in Pennsylvania Archives, Fifth Series, Vol. 7, Pages 834 and 844: Under the Pennsylvania Society of Sons of the Revolution - David Miller was born May 1, 1754 - Private in Captain William Wertses Company, Eighth Battallion, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania - Militia under Colonel James Ross, 1781 - 1782.

Samuel Miller, born October 26, 1806 died July 25, 1875 and Elizabeth Kirkwood, born September 5, 1802; died January 11, 1880; were married in the Mennonite Church, Lampeter Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, about 1830. Three children were born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. About 1835, they moved to Goshen Township, which, at that time, was in Columbiana County, Ohio. In 1848, they moved to Richland County and, in February, 1849, they purchased and moved to the farm now owned by O. K. Austin. With their family of four boys and four girls, they moved to that farm of approximately 100 acres - only one acre of which was clear for cultivation. The rest was virgin forest. The buildings were a log cabin and a "leanto" which was a pole placed between the crotches of two trees, and long poles laid against that and covered with bark and brush to make a shelter for the horses.

Their immediate task was to clear land for planting. They procured meat from game in the forest and sugar from the maple trees. Some berries grew wild and were gathered in their season. They went to the muck lands some 2 miles south and cut prairie grass for hay. That was not good feed but was the best they could get.

In due time, the eight children all married and settled within a few miles of the old homestead, raising families whose descendants have now scattered far and wide.
